Dear Allen:

You know of my deep interest in the work of the American Heritage Foundation because you joined me at the informal dinner meeting last year when we discussed Radio Free Europe and related activities.

I hope you will again be my guest at a similar dinner to be held at the White House on Wednesday, October twenty-seventh, at half past seven.

Sincerely,

P.S. I shall probably wear a black tie, but business suit will be entirely appropriate.

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
